

FAMILY SCARECROW COMPETITION RESULTS

Children's family name, Scarecrow name, plot number and judges' comments:

1st: Florrie and Ernie Hunt:

'Sky and the Dragonfly' – 'Moves with the wind. Bright colours. Artistic cellophane crackling noise. High up'

2nd: Molly Baxendale Hunt

'Gruffalcrow' – 'Beautiful characterisation. Fab name, lovely natural materials – but not scary enough. Too endearing!'

3rd: Grace and Ava Laughrin

'Janus' – 'Clever name and brilliant to have two faces. Nicely stuffed. Best traditional scarecrow!'

Judges: Flora Souper and Robert Griffith

Competition Co-ordinator: Janet Baylis

Registrar: Carol Agers

CHILDREN'S COMPETITION RESULTS

Veggie Bugs (age up to 7)

1st: Max (5): 'The Bug Disco' – 'Excellent attention to detail with a variety of vegetables and bugs. Looks like a party!'

2nd: Ernie Hunt (6½): 'Bumble' – 'We really love the antenna and the carrots. It looks like an amazing crazy bug!'

Make a Bug Hotel (ages 8 – 11)

1st: Florrie Hunt (8)

'Creepy Crawly Campsite' – 'Ivy Nookbug' campsite is stunning, we'd love to stay there. It is very interesting to look at. The leaf rose and shells are beautiful!'

2nd: Bella Read (8)

'The Sunflower Hotel' – 'Absolutely amazing! The contrasting colours and the use of all natural materials are great. Perfect for bugs all round!'

3rd: Freja (4)

'Bug Manor' – 'There are lots of hiding places with a variety of textures and would suit different types of bugs'

Highly Commended: Louie Hadcroft Parrouty (8)

'Bert the Bug House' – 'The hanging is really clever and there holes for the bugs to come in and out of. Super'

Judges: Bethan and Hilary Griffiths and Mandy Baxendale Rook
